

SCENE 1

Speaker 1: Welcome to our little show.
It's called "On with the Snow"
'cause it's all about snow.

Speaker 2: We'll sing and dance and do whatever it takes,
Cause this is a show that celebrates flakes!

Cody: But wait a minute if you really want to know,
I don't mind saying that I hate the snow!

(All gasp!)

Speaker 3: What do you mean, you hate the snow?
You can't hate snow;
it's the name of our show!

Cody: There's no need to shout and there's no need to scold.
I don't like snow because it makes me cold!

All: (nod and ad lib to each other) "
Yep, well he does have a point there."
"Yeah snow is cold alright." etc.

Speaker 4: I have to agree, if the truth be told,
If you're going to have snow,
you have to have cold.

Speaker 5: Snow is cold, that is very well known.
Snow can chill you right to the bone!

Speaker 6: Snow can make you shake and quiver.
When I get cold, all I do is shiver!

SCENE 2

Speaker 7: All this shivering has me in a tizzy.
If you don't want to be cold,
you have to stay busy!

Speaker 8: That's right!
If you keep on moving along,
You won't have to sing
the same shivering song.

Speaker 9: You might get cold
if you just stand there waiting,
But you won't get cold
if you're skiing or skating!

Speaker 10: If you don't want your feet to feel frozen and blocky,
Put on some gear and play some ice hockey!

Speaker 11: I've got the best idea yet!
With snowshoes, you can work up a sweat.

Speaker 12: Hello, everyone! Do I need to remind you, (motioning to the audience) The people are here and we've got a show to do!

All: (ad lib) "Oh yeah!" "That's right!"
"Oops almost forgot." "Snowtime!" etc.

Speaker 13: This next act knows how to stay warm all right!
They work all day and they work all night!

Speaker 14: If you're feeling cold at home in your hovel,
Join this group and pick up a shovel!

SCENE 3

Speaker 15: Well that was great,
but what I want to know,
Is what do shovelers do when there isn't any snow?!

(The shovelers look at each other for a brief pause. Then suddenly start the chant and pretend to mow the lawn with their shovels as they exit.)

Shovelers: Mowing! Mowing! Mowing! Mowing!
Mowing! Mowing! Mowing!

SCENE 4

Announcer 4: Ladies and gents, since the driveway is now clear,
Let's give our next act a great big cheer!

(A cast member whispers in the announcer's ear.)

Announcer 4: It seems we have a slight delay.
The reason why is one of our next performers is a little bit shy!

Speaker 16: He wants to perform but there is a little twist,
Some of you don't even believe he exists.

Speaker 17: Maybe if you would clap real loud,
He'd hear that you are a believing crowd.
(leads the audience in clapping)

Speaker 18: Well that wasn't bad and you all did your best,
But maybe some cheering would help our next guest.

(He leads the audience in clapping and cheering.)

(A cast member whispers in his ear.)

Announcer 4: He says he's ready.
Your cheering did the trick.
So, let's introduce him,
and get him on quick!

Speaker 19: Ladies and gentlemen!
Please put your mittens together
for our next guest.
The Abominable Snowman
is the absolute best!

(The snowman enters to cheers.)

Abominable

Snowman: Thank you! Thank you very much!
It's a pleasure to be here.
We have so much to show,
so much for you to watch.
Please welcome my friends,
Bigfoot and Sasquatch!

(Bigfoot and Sasquatch enter to applause.)

Sasquatch: Sasquatch is my name. Being here is a treat.

Bigfoot: You'll recognize me by the size of my feet!

(He holds up one foot at a time.)

Sasquatch: No need to be afraid. No need to worry.

Bigfoot: No need to fear us just because we are furry!

Song 4: Snow Buddies

(led by our guest stars Bigfoot, Sasquatch and The Abominable Snowman)

SCENE 5

Cody: Well those three were good and really,
so nice,
But I still don't like snow and my toes are like ice!

Speaker 20: Well never fear for this next song will awe you,
Not only that, it might even thaw you.

Speaker 21: After all, when you're surrounded by friends,
The warmth in your heart just never ends.

Little Speaker: And here we are, friends one and all,
(point at Bigfoot's held up foot)
No matter how big!

Bigfoot: (patting speaker on the head)
No matter how small.

Speaker 22: We stay safe and warm, no matter the weather.

Speaker 23: We'll never be cold, if we all stick together.

Speaker 24: Warmth never ends if it gets a good start;
So finally, a tender ballad to warm any heart.

SCENE 6

Speaker 25: Well that's about it for our show about snow,
But one more thing before you all go!

Speaker 26: We have a last message to share with you.
We hope you agree, each word of it true.

Cody: As long as you're warm on the inside,
you see,
You can survive the cold of the outside,
just like me!

Speaker 27: Kindness and warmth win
if we let them begin,
And they always win,
if they begin from within.

Speaker 28: So be nice to each other wherever you go,
And now, my friends,
let's get on with the snow!
I mean ... show!

Reprise: It's Snowtime!
